

This is another story I have dreamt up Rose and the current Doctor are in this.

The TARDIS whizzing through space On board Rose is helping the Doctor at the controls.

"Doctor where are we going" asks Rose "Remember when I told you about my niece Susan well you two will get along fine the last time I saw Susie was when she was 8 years old" said the Doctor thoughtfully.

Rose saw a picture of a little girl with black hair, blue eyes and then she noticed the clothes she was wearing in front of the Doctor.

A Blue zipper coat, Pink shirt, Black and White Checked dress, White socks and red shoes.

"What a cutie pie" said Rose "I know" said the Doctor smiling.

And soon they arrived in Haig Avenue to pick her up the Doctor went alone and Rose stayed in the TARDIS.

A young lady who was about the same age as Rose knocked on the TARDIS door.

She was wearing a Navy Suit and while this lady was waiting for Rose to open the door she started to straighten her blouse, her jacket and brush her trousers with her hand.

"Barbara was lucky getting to wear a blue jumper pink trousers and suede boots while I had to wear that awful blouse that dreadful dress and those socks and shoes what a horrid combination.

Why couldn't I wear a nice pair of trousers I had to act like a little girl I tried to appeal to Barbara but no she said little girls don't wear trousers nice dresses.

I even appeared in a catalogue wearing Red trousers but one lady held me down and whipped my trousers off I complained and what did I get a slap on my bare legs and a sore bottom" said the young girl muttering to herself.

Rose opened the door "Hello can I help you" said Rose "Is my grandfather in he is expecting me" said the young lady.

"I'm sorry no he has gone to collect his niece Susan" said Rose "Oh dear I have missed him" said the young lady ruefully.

"Do come in" said Rose "Thank you said the young lady and she walked in wheeling a suitcase behind her.

"What's your name love my name is Rose the Doctor's companion" said Rose "My name is Susan the Doctor's niece "said Susan.

Just then the Doctor returned and he didn't look happy "I have been to see Ian and Barbara and she isn't there when I get hold of her she will be in so much trouble like that time we went to Naples and it was warm I suggested she wear a skirt or dress but no she wore pale blue trousers I should have put her over my knee and spanked her bottom for being stubborn" said the Doctor annoyingly unaware that Susan was near by .

"Grandfather" said Susan "What is it now my dear oh my good lord Susan" said the Doctor.

"Would you still spank me if we went to Naples and I still wore trousers" said Susan "No my dear child " said the Doctor hugging Susan.

"I see you have met Rose your quarters are ready" said the Doctor and with that Susan went to unpack.

It brought back happy memories the last time Susan stayed with her grandfather and she saw the rack where she would hang her trousers and remembering doing the same at 8 years old.

At that time she laid out her Navy pair Pale blue Green and Brown but it was different now she is a grown woman.

She soon joined the Doctor and Rose in the the control room "Naples 1869 here we come" said the Doctor.

Everything was going smoothly until the Doctor remembered somethig "Oh damn Mickey was going to sort out the humidifier.

They finally arrived in Naples 1969 where it was baking hot luckily Susan was wearing Pale Blue linen trousers but Susan was apprehensive.

"I think I might put a skirt on Grandfather" said Susan "You don't need to change you look lovely as you always do" said the Doctor.

I heard you complain to Rose and you said if I wear Pale Blue trousers I'm in for a spanking." said Susan.

"Don't be silly Susan you're all grown up now" said the Doctor just then Rose walked past and playfully spanked Susan's bot.

Susan Glared what else could happen

All three were about to head out of the door when the Doctor suddenly thought of something.

"Girls you have to look the part go to your quarters and look in the special compartment and you'll find something.

Rose dashed off to her quarters and in her compartment was a multi coloured shirt and chocolate brown trousers and then she noticed a little thong and she managed to put her outfit on while Susan was struggling.

Rose went to check on Susan as soon as Rose got to Susan's door she saw a figure bending over gingerly "Susan can you manage" said Rose.

"I have put my plum trousers on but if I try to stretch and get my pink jumper my trousers are likely to split" said Susan .

"Susan have you noticed a little thong" inquired Rose holding it up and with that Rose helped Susan get ready "No wonder ladies bums don't wobble while wearing thease" joked Susan.

Then a short while later the girls joined the Doctor and with that he opened the door of the TARDIS and as Rose and Susan went out the Doctor tapped their rears playfully.

"Do you mind said Rose "Grandfather said Susan but a sinister auton was lurking near by.

A couple of ladies walked past them and they grabbed the two ladies and out of the auton's hand came out a pair of scissors "Ooh Beryl what's he gonna do to my pants" said Lyn "Well he is looking at my green ones in a funny way" said Lyn just then there was a terrible ripping sound.

"Me trousers, you bad man I have just put these clean on" said the ladies in unison As a black and a green pair were ripped.

"Lyn pity you washed your brown pair as this wouldn't happen or mine hadn't been washed

Then they noticed a badge on one of them and in bold letter it said THE TROUSER INSPECTER.

The Doctor and two companions rushed to the ladies aid, but they had gone.

Sinister work afoot

Beryl and Lyn were visibly shaken as they suffered a terrible fate " Susan you are wearing plum trousers watch out or he could do the same to you as he did to me" said Lyn.

Just then in the distance there was a lady wearing checked trousers and a little girl wearing a grey pair, suddenly Rose saw a auton dressed as a nurse and she took off to warn them.

She got there just in time and Rose stood in front of them "Why don't you tear mine or are you chicken" said Rose bravely and in the nick of time Susan and the Doctor arrived.

"Don't tear Rose's trousers rip mine" said Susan daringly and with that she winked at the Doctor.

And the Doctor got the sonic screwdriver out as another auton appeared and each one got their weapons out.

Rose and Susan caressed their trousers "Please don't tear my brown trousers "don't tear my plum trousers" said Rose and Susan thinking silently.

And in an instant there was a short explosion as the Doctor fired at the auton and in doing so alerted the others.

Suddenly they were surrounded Rose and Susan stood back to back

"Well is this our waterloo" said Rose "Who knows" said Susan

What happens next tune in and find out

The Doctor stared at each Auton "if you harm Susan or Rose you'll be in so much trouble" he barked.

Just then Rose had an idea as she felt a bulge in her handbag close to her trouser pocket.

And she pulled out a water bottle and lifted the top of it as she did a Auton got close to Susan a pair of scissors appeared Rose spun round and hit the Auton causing him to blow up.

"Rose a bit of water landed on my pants, they might not bother if they see a bit of water" said Susan.

Soon our heroes were running towards Marks And Sparks when they saw an Auton hovering menacingly near a lady's royal blue sateen trousers Rose crept up to the back of him and squirted.

Unknown to Rose there was a bucket full of water and as he turned he knocked Rose off balance and she landed on the bucket of water.

"Oh great I have wet my trousers why do I always wet my Brown trousers I jump in a puddle or have a snowball thrown at me or I don't make it to the toilet on time or maybe Mickey oh it doesn't matter" said Rose under her breath.

And with that the Auton made his way to Susan, Susan saw his badge close up Head Inspector.

As for Rose she was still stuck in the bucket legs akimbo The Doctor helped Rose to her feet "Rose you naughty girl wetting your trousers well guess who's washing these tonight" said the Doctor teasingly.

Rose went up to the Auton and rubbed her trouser leg on his and then she ran as he blew up and as he did the others stopped too.

Then it was all over and they walked outside Rose tried to walk in the sunlight to dry her trousers.

And back on board the TARDIS Susan was getting the washing out of the washing machine Rose had set up an ironing board "Girls have you seen my brown tie" said the Doctor.

"You mean this one "said Rose "Yeah that one we washed it after you spilled Ice cream on it" said Susan.

"Rose your brown trousers are in the wardrobe after being washed" said Susan. "Thanks" said Rose.
And with that she went to change

The End
